Application for registration as a British citizen by a person born before 1 July 2006 whose parents were not married

Application for Registration as a British Citizen by a person born before 1 July 2006 whose parents were not married

Important: Before completing this form, you should read the accompanying Guide UKF. Fill in those parts of the form that apply to your application. If there is not enough space for your answer, use a separate sheet of paper to provide additional information.

If you want help to complete your application form, you may wish to contact a competent adviser, for example a solicitor or agent registered with the Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner.

We recommend that you keep a copy of this application.

Note: Some of the information you provide on this form will be stored on a computer which is registered under the Data Protection Act. You should ensure that you understand the criteria for registration for UKF before submitting your application. Full fees cannot be returned for applications that fail. Please write in block capitals using black or blue ink. Please enter all dates as dd-mm-yyyy, for example, 21/09/2013

5. Consent

For children under the age of 18 applying under section 4G it is a legal requirement that both parents consent to the application. Where one parent has died only the consent of the surviving parent is needed. The Home Secretary may also waive this requirement in exceptional cases. If only one parent has consented, please explain why at section 5.3. If it is not convenient for one of the parents to sign the form, consent can be provided in a separate letter.

6. Declaration by applicant

Read this section carefully before inserting your name clearly in box 6.1 and ticking each box at 6.2 - 6.5 to confirm the points raised.

If you meet the requirements described in this guide please sign and date the form in box 6.6. You are advised to read this guide carefully to ensure that you do satisfy all the requirements.

You must normally sign the form yourself. If you cannot sign the form you must make a mark or a fingerprint and ask one of your referees to sign saying that it is your mark or fingerprint. If the applicant is not of sound mind and you are acting on his or her behalf you should sign to indicate your responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of the information provided. You must support this by explaining, in a covering letter, who you are and why the applicant cannot act on their own behalf. Confirmation from the applicant's medical practitioner or consultant should also be provided.

If the declaration in section 6 of the form is not completed, the application will be invalid.

Warning: to give false information on this form knowingly or recklessly is a criminal offence punishable with up to 3 months' imprisonment or by a fine not exceeding £5000 or both.

6.1	I (full name in block letters)

declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information given in this application is correct. I know of no reason why I should not be granted British citizenship. I promise to inform the Home Secretary in writing of any change in circumstances which may affect the accuracy of the information given whilst this application is being considered by the Home Office. I understand that information given by me will be treated in confidence, but may be submitted for checking against records held by other Government departments, the Security Service and other agencies, local authorities and the police, where it is necessary for immigration or nationality purposes, or to enable these bodies to carry out their functions.

I understand that I may be liable for prosecution if I have knowingly or recklessly provided false or incomplete information.

I authorise the HM Revenue and Customs to provide the Home Office with information relevant to this application, and with any information needed to check the information I have provided. I understand that any information provided to the HM Revenue and Customs in connection with this application may be used by them for the purpose of their statutory functions.
